

WB Developing and Fixing Kit

Catalogue No.: abx090662

WB Developing and Fixing Kit is a processing kit, which can be used for Western, Northern and Southern Blotting after squashed. This kit is especially suitable for X-ray developing and fixing, as well as normal black & white negative film or photograph. This kit can be used solely without any other assistant reagent.

Tested Applications:

WB

Note:

This product is for research use only.